Forty Hours Devotion at Notre Dame.

The service of 40 hours devotion at Notre Dame church began Sunday and closed yesterday after a very earnest series of services. High mass was celebrated at 10 o'clock, Sunday, with a strong sermon on the Value of Holy Communion by Rev. Father Aubin, of the Sacred Heart College, Swanton. At this service the choir rendered the Missa Regia of Beethoven. At the evening service Father Aubin gave a sermon on the Advent season as a time of preparation for Christmas. Monday morning there were four masses at 8, 9, 10 and 11 o'clock, and at these services about 650 received the holy communion. Monday night there was a service similar to the one of the previous evening, and the devotion closed yesterday morning with the celebration of high mass and a procession.

The altar decorations for the services were made by the Sisters of the convent and were particularly beautiful and the illumination of the altar was magnificent, more than 300 lights being used. The out of town priests who assisted in the services were Frs. Riley of Littleton, Maillet of Waterbury, Clermont of Newport, Piquette of Lowell, Audet of Winooski, Lachance of Hyde Park, and Fontbrant of Lyndonville.

County Court.

The December term of county court was formally opened yesterday with only Judge G. H. Christ and the court officers in attendance. A recess was taken until next Tuesday when court will assemble for business. Judge Loveland Munson, who is to preside at this term, is detained at Montpelier at the September term of the Washington County court, which is still in session. Several of the cases on the jury calendar for Tuesday have been settled or continued and the first case likely to be tried is that of George L. Johnson vs. W. W. Cate. The malpractice case of Clyde M. Humphrey vs. Ward R. Noyes, which created so much interest at the June term, and resulted in a disagreement of the jury, has been settled. The case was to be retried at this term. The present outlook is that the term will be a short one.

County C. E. Convention Notes.

The date is Wednesday, Dec. 11, and the place is the North church chapel. The sessions begin at 10 a. m.

The fact that Rev. Dr. Clark is to be present will induce to a large attendance. Quite a number of Edeavorers from the Sixth Union have signified their purpose to attend.

Selections from the new Edeavor Hymnal will be used at this convention. Delegates should come prepared to remain for the evening session, as Dr. Clark's address will be something they cannot afford to miss.

Programs will be sent out to the Edeavor Societies of the county this week. Notify J. W. Sault at St. Johnsbury, by Dec. 7, how many are likely to come from each society.

The young people's societies connected with other St. Johnsbury churches are cordially invited to attend the convention.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned return thanks to all the friends for their many tokens of sympathy in the midst of their sad bereavement. Especially they wish to express their appreciation of the thoughtful sympathy of the teacher and pupils of the second grade, Union schools, and the officers and members of the primary Department of the Methodist Sunday school.
